

CRIMINAL ACTIVITY

Nominet expressly prohibits .UK domains from being used for any unlawful purpose. When alerted by law enforcement agencies, we work quickly with our registrars to suspend domains. Suspended domains cannot be used as part of website or email addresses.

how it works

Nominet makes administrative checks

A suspension request may not result in a suspension for a number of reasons — for example, the domain may have already been suspended due to a duplicate request, or the domain may have already been transferred on a court order.

Nominet notifies the registrant and works with the registrar

to suspend the domain

reversals

Law enforcement agency notifies

Nominet that a domain is being used for criminal activity suspension to be reversed, we check all internal procedures to confirm the suspension was correctly applied. Any complaints regarding grounds for suspension are referred back to the law enforcement agency. A suspension request can be lifted if the law enforcement agency that made the original request confirms this.

If the holder of a suspended domain asks Nominet for the Data refers to domains suspended due to requests received during the specified period

OFFENSIVE NAMES Nominet prohibits the registration of domain names that promote or incite serious sexual offences

(where there is no reasonable or legitimate use for that domain).

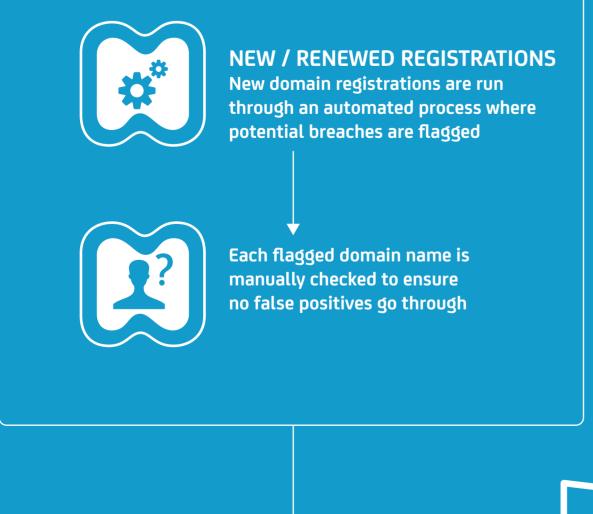

following a full review of the registry

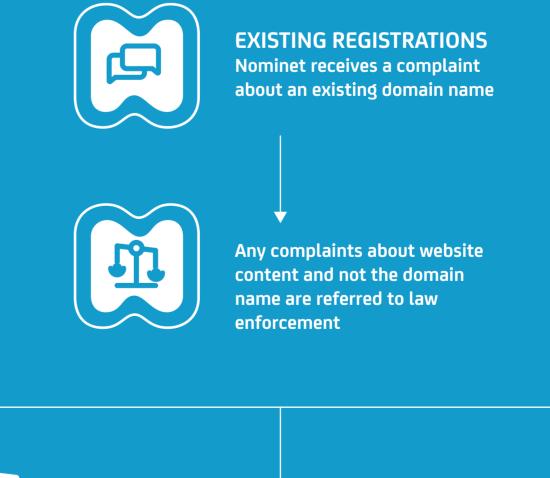

how it works

can register that domain in the future.

Registrants have 30 days to appeal this assessment.

Appeals would be referred to an independent external body.

If a domain name is in breach, the registrant and registrar are notified and the domain suspended and blocked so that no one

Nominet is an international, internet company with a team of 150 people based in Oxford and London. It is a public benefit world's largest country code registries. With the proceeds of their successful registry business, Nominet set up and supports the Nominet Trust, an independent charitable foundation focussed on increasing access, safety and education on internet issues. Rights holders who wish to seek control of a domain name they believe should be theirs, might be interested in our Dispute company with 2,800 members. Since 1996, Nominet has managed and run domain names that end in .UK and is now one of the

ABOUT NOMINET